ANTONIA KRASKOWSKI reveals her latest finds on the high street from homewares to fashion

★ ANGELO, Europe's largest vintage fashion collection, will tour the UK for the first time next month with McArthurGlen Designer Outlets. Fans should look out for two pop-up boutiques where they can find must-have vintage items. The events take place in Swindon from April 30 to May 17 and York from May 21 to June 7. (mcarthurglen.com)

★ NOT only is this limited edition clutch bag, £28, from Warehouse on trend for this season with its embroidery, pompoms and tassels, 30 per cent of the sale is donated to Fashion Targets Breast Cancer. (warehouse.co.uk)

★ IF YOU want glamorous sunglasses but don't have 20/20 vision, try Transitions. The lenses darken in bright light to protect your eyes. I love these glasses from Face à Face, £369 including lenses. (transitions.com)

★ I CAN never have enough denim shirts. This pretty embroidered number from Mother Denim, £350, is on my wishlist. (donnaida.com)
